

Future Woman Pilot Program

The Ninety-Nines promotes student pilots in our Future Woman Pilot (FWP) Program. We would like to encourage more student pilots to join the International Ninety-Nines as FWPs:

- As a FWP, you are eligible for the Future Woman Pilot Award of $1000.00 that can be used towards training for a private pilot certificate.
- Your FWP membership begins the one-year waiting period to apply for an Amelia Earhart Career Scholarship. In 2004, thirteen Career Scholarships were awarded for ratings ranging from instrument, commercial, and CFI, to ATP and 737 type rating.
- As a FWP, you can utilize our resources for career pilots including our Pro 99s Email Network and Professional Pilot Leadership Initiative (PPLI).
- As a FWP, you can utilize our 99s Flight Training Forum, an email discussion forum where members can discuss all aspects of flight training.
- As a FWP, you can participate in The 99s Email Network: This is email network provides a means for 99s to discuss varied topics -- flying, chapter/section innovations and ideas, networking and mentoring, being a 99 and more.
- As a FWP, you receive The 99s Membership Directory: Find women pilot friends worldwide in our directory, also available on CD-Rom and online.
- As a FWP, your receive 99s News Magazine and access to our members' area on our website, <http://ninety-nines.org>: Two sources of news about women pilots and our activities around the world.
- As a FWP, you are covered by The Ninety-Nines, Inc. Insurance at all Ninety-Nines, Inc. sponsored activities. This includes activities at the chapter level, section level, and international level.
- Most importantly, as a FWP, you are in the company of friends. You receive understanding, encouragement and strength. You can participate in 99s sponsored flying activities, aviation education, and community service.

So --- as a student pilot, join the International Ninety-Nines as a Future Women Pilot (a medical certificate is required and FWPs must be affiliated with a chapter). Reap the benefits of belonging to the oldest international aviation organization and enjoy the camaraderie of other women pilots.

Blue skies...
