Type of Organization:	Nonprofit, charitable membership corporation registered in the State of Delaware, holding 501(c)(3) U.S. tax status. Governed by a nine-member elected board of directors.
Founded:	November 2, 1929, at Curtiss Field, Valley Stream, Long Island, New York, by noted aviator Amelia Earhart and other early women pilots. Of the 117 licensed women pilots of the day, 99 became charter members of the organization and took the name from their number. The membership was international from the beginning and Earhart was elected first president.
Membership:	More than 5,000 licensed women pilots from 36 countries.
Mission:	Promote world fellowship through flight. Provide networking and scholarship opportunities for women and aviation education in the community. Preserve the unique history of women in aviation.
Activities:	Each year, local chapters sponsor several hundred educational programs, including aerospace workshops for teachers, airport tours for school children, fear-of-flying clinics for airline passengers, and flight instructor revalidation seminars. For many years, 99s have co-sponsored more than 75 per cent of the FAA pilot safety programs in the United States. Members have worked with the National Intercollegiate Flying Association's student flying competitions since 1948 as judges, runners, and teachers, as well as with funding assistance.
Scholarships:	Each year awards Amelia Earhart Memorial Scholarships to qualified members for advanced flight training or course work in specialized branches of aviation. In 2000, awards totaled nearly $50,000, including a type rating valued at $10,000 presented by the United Parcel Service Foundation. Many chapters and sections provide additional scholarships to women at the local level.
Headquarters:	Opened the permanent headquarters building on the grounds of Will Rogers World Airport in Oklahoma City, USA in 1975. A second, two-story building expanded the facility to twice its original size in 1988.
Museums:	Own and manage the Amelia Earhart Birthplace Museum in Atchison, Kansas. Since 1984, the organization has been fully restoring the 1850's structure to the era when Amelia lived there.  99s Museum of Women Pilots in Oklahoma City dedicated in 1999. Located on the second floor of the organization's headquarters, the museum contains displays and artifacts focusing on the history of women in aviation. In addition, archives and other resources are maintained on site.
Recognition:	Received recognition from numerous local, regional, national, and international sources. In 1982, The 99s received the National Aviation Hall of Fame Spirit of Flight Award.
